

Glória Nunes Rodrigues

International Manager. Euskampus Fundazioa. University of the Basque Country (UPV/EHU). Spain.

Glória Nunes Rodrigues is International Manager at Euskampus Fundazioa. She is actively involved in the implementation of the impact-related activities of the European University Alliance ENLIGHT.

Previously, she worked as Research Adviser at the University of Deusto, where she was in charge of the promotion of the social impact of the university research activities. She worked as Policy Officer at the European Commission, DG Education and Culture, in the Unit "European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT), Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions and Innovation in Education". She was head of the projects and policy analysis unit of WindEurope and worked at the Instituto de Estudos Estratégicos Internacionais in Lisbon. Glória holds a degree in Political Science and International Relations (Universidade Nova de Lisboa), a Master Degree in European Policy (Institut d'études européennes) and a Diploma from the Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris.

