

Jacqueline Scherpen

Rector - University of Groningen. The Netherlands.

Since September 2023, Jacqueliën Scherpen, has been appointed as Rector of the University of Groningen. She is an applied mathematician and professor in the field of measurement and control technology. From 2016 until 2023 she was director at the Groningen Engineering Center that brings together all engineering research and education at the university. In 2019 she received a Royal distinction and in 2023 she received the Prince Friso Engineering Prize.

