

Manon Colombo

EC2U University Alliance. France.

Manon was a Student Representative for three years at the University of Poitiers for EC2U. She advocated for the creation of the EC2U Student Council and took part in the organisation of the EC2U Forum in Poitiers, welcoming more than a hundred students for a week of debates on gender equality.

She was elected Chair during the first mandate of the EC2U Student Council, a governing body composed of more than 30 students from different student organisations of the Alliance. She focused on the recognition of student engagement and the consideration of student mental health in universities. She also work as a research analyst intern at the Coimbra Group in 2024.

Manon is currently a Master's student in International Politics at the University Panthéon-Sorbonne
