

Nele Bracke

Senior Research Policy Advisor. Ghent University. Belgium.

Nele Bracke is a senior research policy advisor at Ghent University (Belgium), where she bridges the worlds of research and HR policy. Nele develops innovative approaches to responsible research(er) assessment. She also delivers training sessions on research integrity for students, early career researchers and academics.

